Dear Your Honor,

I'm writing you regards to my father BRIAN ELM. I understand that today I find out just how long I have to wait till I get to live in a normal surrounding with him again. My father and I have had many talks about life and the good and bad in it. He is truly sorry for the wrong he has done and is now ready to make it right despite all the wrong he's done, he has always owned up to it and made me understand that they were bad choices and is still trying to guide me to make smart decisions. In your decision today please remember that I love my dad and I need my dad. I believe he will do his best to stay his new right path and continue when he is finally released. Thank you for taking your time to read my letter.

Sincerely, Kearon Lujan
